

Election 2017: Gibori, Zelinsky, Taylor and Garbis win in Avoca 37

COLDWELL BANKER
RESIDENTIAL BROKERAGE

SFC Team

Must Attend with Power Leader
#wilmington

91437: Sunset Dr., Wilmette H $1,159,000.00

www.sfcteam.com • 847-652-2312

Most Viewed

Election 2017: Dodd, Leonard and Kurzman gain Village Board seats

Election 2017: Economy Party sweeps New Trier Township election

In Memoriam: Kenilworth's Gwyther had 'ability to be in the hearts of people'

Wilmette's Pratt releases haunting debut album

Election 2017: Incumbents retain seats on Wilmette Park Board

View More

Eric DeGrechie, Editor
11:00 am CDT April 5, 2017
Share +

Vice President Rick Zelinski was the top vote-getter in the Avoca District 37 School Board race Tuesday night and will retain his four-year seat.

With 7 of 7 precincts reporting, Zelinski (533 votes/22.77 percent), Gil Gibori (506/21.61), Jamie Taylor (455/19.44) and Wilmette's Dan Garbis (455/19.44) held off Jun Yoshitani 385/16.45) for the four open seats, according to unofficial results from the Cook County Clerk's website.